One Knife, One Pan, One Dish....

Getting back to basics...

A simple, easy to learn recipe to cook a tasty plate of food in just 10 minutes.... Of course you can do it!

This fun concept has been developed to appeal to the novice as well as more experienced home cook.

Appearing on stage , radio and TV and at food festivals nationwide. '@thedemochef', Phil Leverington, a 'seasoned' demonstrator works closely with the local independent micro-producers to create tasty, easy to repeat, no nonsense dishes.

Sourcing ingredients from local suppliers or festival producers on the day, prepping and cooking from scratch whilst having a bit of a chat, he has a relaxed, 'keep it simple' approach using just one knife and one pan to create a tasty dish in 10 minutes...
